

Providing Education and Career Pathways Across All Rural Related Businesses

Pathways to Rural Work (P2RW) – Neuro Goes Rural

ADHD Rural Connect Project Coordinator - £25k pro rata

CountrySide Learning Scotland (CLS) is working with Perth and Kinross ADHD, Perth Autism Support, the Moore House Group, schools, rural businesses and relevant agencies to enhance and improve career pathway opportunities in the rural sector for neuro divergent young people in Perth and the surrounding area. The progressive ADHD Rural Connect project will be delivered as part of CountrySide Learning Scotland's (CLS) P2RW initiative. The project will provide young people with the opportunity to engage with the diverse range of rural careers; develop soft skills, employability skills and rural skills and will support the transition into further and higher education, training and work.

CLS seeks a Project Coordinator to deliver this project in the Perth area, either on a self-employed or employed basis. You will join a great team focusing on event planning, project management and partnership building, delivering this interesting and rewarding work. The post will initially be 24hrs hours per week, hybrid-remote working will be considered. Initial 1 year contract 1st Sept. 2024 until 31st August 2025. The post is currently funded for two years, and we hope to extend the role depending on future funding.

For further information and full job description contact Ian Robertson at CountrySide Learning Scotland at ian@countrysidelearningscotland.org.uk or by phone on 07840 951332. To apply, please send your CV and covering letter to the above email by 5pm on 19th July. Interviews will take place w/c 29th July.

This project is supported by the NHS Tayside Charitable Foundation

